

Protection of Vulnerable Groups (PVG Scheme)

TABLE C

Guidance for Scotland only

Role description Ministers, stipendiary/non-stipendiary and Church Related Community Workers Ministers of other denominations employed by the United Reformed Church Others in Special Category Ministry Posts Ministers and CRCWs in training Ministers and CRCWs in training Serving Normally, Check each role individually Yes Senior Assembly Appointed Staff & Relevant Church House Support Staff Serving Check each role individually Synod recognised Lay Pastors / Local Leaders / Interim Moderators / Interim Ministers TLS students studying 'Gateways into Care' courses Safe Church Advisers Pastoral Response Team members Mes Mes Serving Yes Check each role individually Serving Yes Check each role individually Yes Check each role individually Yes Check each role individually Yes TLS students studying 'Gateways into Care' courses Safe Church Advisers Pastoral Response Team members Check each Application Application		"Recruiting	Safely"
Role description Ministers, stipendiary/non-stipendiary and Church Related Community Workers Ministers of other denominations employed by the United Reformed Church Yes Ministers of other denominations employed by the United Reformed Church Others in Special Category Ministry Posts Check each role individually Ministers and CRCWs in training Senior Assembly Appointed Staff & Relevant Church House Support Staff Check each role individually Synod recognised Lay Pastors / Local Leaders / Interim Moderators / Interim Ministers TLS students studying 'Gateways into Care' courses Yes Safe Church Advisers Pastoral Response Team members Check each role individually Ministers, stipendiary/non-stipendiary and Church Related Community Workers No URC Assembly Accredited Lay Preachers No URC Non Assembly Accredited Lay Preachers, URC Worship Leaders No Other denominations' Lay Preachers/Worship Leaders No Other denominations' Lay Preachers/Worship Leaders No Other denominations' Lay Preachers/Worship Leaders No Other denominations' Lay Preachers of the Church and is not targeted at people with particular needs in their patch but this is incidental to their main role of providing contact with all members of the congregation in his/her area and not just, for example, older people who are housebound. Elders vill also visit people with all members of the congregation in his/her area and not just, for example, older people who are housebound. Casual visiting by those with positions of responsibility in the church but not to any specific groups. Casual visiting by those with positions of responsibility in the church but not to any specific group. Casual visiting by those with positions of responsibility in the church but not to any specific group. Casual visiting by those with positions of responsibility in the church but not to any specific group. Transport - private/casual either organised independently or for any member of the		requires PVG Scheme
Ministers, stipendiary/non-stipendiary and Church Related Community Workers Ministers of other denominations employed by the United Reformed Church Check each role individually Was Check each role individually Yes Senior Assembly Appointed Staff & Relevant Church House Support Staff Check each role individually Synod recognised Lay Pastors / Local Leaders / Interim Moderators / Interim Ministers TLS students studying 'Gateways into Care' courses Yes Safe Church Advisers Yes Synod recognised posts Check each role individually Synod recognised Lay Pastors / Local Leaders / Interim Moderators / Yes Safe Church Advisers Yes Synod recognised Lay Pastors / Local Leaders / Interim Moderators / Yes Synod recognised Lay Pastors / Local Leaders / Interim Moderators / Yes Synod recognised Lay Pastors / Local Leaders / Interim Moderators / Yes Synod recognised Dosts Check each role individually Ministers Synod recognised posts Check each role individually Ministers Synod recognised posts Non-serving or Retired No Non-serving or Retired No URC Assembly Accredited Lay Preachers No Other denominations' Lay Preachers, URC Worship Leaders No URC Non Assembly Accredited Lay Preachers, URC Worship Leaders No Other denominations' Lay Preachers of the Church and is not targeted at people with particular needs in their patch but this is incidental to their main role of providing contact with all members of the congregation in his/her area and not just, for example, older people who are housebound. Elders will also visit people with a particular needs in their patch but this is incidental to their main role of providing contact with all members of the congregation in his/her area and not just, for example, older people who are housebound. Elders will also visit people with a particular needs in their patch but this is incidental to their main role of providing contact with all members of the congregation. Casual visiting by those with positions of responsibility in the church but not to any sp		•
Ministers, stipendiary/non-stipendiary and Church Related Community Workers Ministers of other denominations employed by the United Reformed Church Yes Normally, Check each role individually Yes Senior Assembly Appointed Staff & Relevant Church House Support Staff Senior Assembly Appointed Staff & Relevant Church House Support Staff Serving Yes Safe Church Advisers Pastoral Response Team members Check each role individually Ministers, stipendiary/non-stipendiary and Church Related Community Workers Synod recognised Day Pastors / Local Leaders / Interim Moderators / Individually Synod recognised posts Check each role individually Ministers, stipendiary/non-stipendiary and Church Related Community Workers No URC Assembly Accredited Lay Preachers Trustees No Check each role individually Ministers, stipendiary/non-stipendiary and Church Related Community Workers No URC Assembly Accredited Lay Preachers No Check each role individually Application of the Church and is not application of the Church and is not targeted at people with particular needs in their patch but this is incidental to their main role of providing contact with all members of the congregation in his/her area and not just, for example, older people who are housebound. Elders will also visit people with particular needs in their patch but this is incidental to their main role of providing contact with all members of the congregation. Casual visiting by those with positions of responsibility in the church but not to any specific groups. Casual visiting by those with positions of responsibility in the church but not to any specific groups. Casual visiting by those with positions of responsibility in the church but not to any specific groups. Casual visiting by those with positions of responsibility in the church but not to any specific groups.	Role description
Church Related Community Workers Ministers of other denominations employed by the United Reformed Church Normally, Check each role individually Ministers and CRCWs in training Senior Assembly Appointed Staff & Relevant Church House Support Staff Senior Assembly Appointed Staff & Relevant Church House Support Staff Serving Yes Check each role individually Synod recognised Lay Pastors / Local Leaders / Interim Moderators / Interim Ministers TLS students studying 'Gateways into Care' courses Yes Safe Church Advisers Pastoral Response Team members Check each role individually Ministers, stipendiary/non-stipendiary and Church Related Community Workers URC Assembly Accredited Lay Preachers No Trustees No Trustees No Other denominations' Lay Preachers/Worship Leaders No Other denominati		and/or ever	y 5 years
Pastoral Response Team members Synod recognised posts Check each role individually Ministers, stipendiary/non-stipendiary and Church Related Community Workers No URC Assembly Accredited Lay Preachers No Trustees No URC Non Assembly Accredited Lay Preachers, URC Worship Leaders No Other denominations' Lay Preachers/Worship Leaders Elders / Pastoral visitors who make home visits but not to any specific groups, rather the whole congregation - general service for all members of the Church and is not targeted at people with particular needs e.g. an elder will visit all members of the congregation in his/her area and not just, for example, older people who are housebound. Elders will also visit people with particular needs in their patch but this is incidental to their main role of providing contact with all members of the congregation. Casual visiting by those with positions of responsibility in the church but not to any specific group Transport - private/casual either organised independently or for any member of the	ISAMINO I	Yes	h K
Pastoral Response Team members Synod recognised posts Check each role individually Ministers, stipendiary/non-stipendiary and Church Related Community Workers No URC Assembly Accredited Lay Preachers No Trustees No URC Non Assembly Accredited Lay Preachers, URC Worship Leaders No Other denominations' Lay Preachers/Worship Leaders Elders / Pastoral visitors who make home visits but not to any specific groups, rather the whole congregation - general service for all members of the Church and is not targeted at people with particular needs e.g. an elder will visit all members of the congregation in his/her area and not just, for example, older people who are housebound. Elders will also visit people with particular needs in their patch but this is incidental to their main role of providing contact with all members of the congregation. Casual visiting by those with positions of responsibility in the church but not to any specific group Transport - private/casual either organised independently or for any member of the	Ministers of other denominations employed by the United Reformed Church	Yes	gh t nurc
Pastoral Response Team members Synod recognised posts Check each role individually Ministers, stipendiary/non-stipendiary and Church Related Community Workers No URC Assembly Accredited Lay Preachers No Trustees No URC Non Assembly Accredited Lay Preachers, URC Worship Leaders No Other denominations' Lay Preachers/Worship Leaders Elders / Pastoral visitors who make home visits but not to any specific groups, rather the whole congregation - general service for all members of the Church and is not targeted at people with particular needs e.g. an elder will visit all members of the congregation in his/her area and not just, for example, older people who are housebound. Elders will also visit people with particular needs in their patch but this is incidental to their main role of providing contact with all members of the congregation. Casual visiting by those with positions of responsibility in the church but not to any specific group Transport - private/casual either organised independently or for any member of the
Pastoral Response Team members Synod recognised posts Check each role individually Ministers, stipendiary/non-stipendiary and Church Related Community Workers No URC Assembly Accredited Lay Preachers No Trustees No URC Non Assembly Accredited Lay Preachers, URC Worship Leaders No Other denominations' Lay Preachers/Worship Leaders Elders / Pastoral visitors who make home visits but not to any specific groups, rather the whole congregation - general service for all members of the Church and is not targeted at people with particular needs e.g. an elder will visit all members of the congregation in his/her area and not just, for example, older people who are housebound. Elders will also visit people with particular needs in their patch but this is incidental to their main role of providing contact with all members of the congregation. Casual visiting by those with positions of responsibility in the church but not to any specific group Transport - private/casual either organised independently or for any member of the	Others in Special Category Ministry Posts	Check each	e th
Pastoral Response Team members Synod recognised posts Check each role individually Ministers, stipendiary/non-stipendiary and Church Related Community Workers No URC Assembly Accredited Lay Preachers No Trustees No URC Non Assembly Accredited Lay Preachers, URC Worship Leaders No Other denominations' Lay Preachers/Worship Leaders Elders / Pastoral visitors who make home visits but not to any specific groups, rather the whole congregation - general service for all members of the Church and is not targeted at people with particular needs e.g. an elder will visit all members of the congregation in his/her area and not just, for example, older people who are housebound. Elders will also visit people with particular needs in their patch but this is incidental to their main role of providing contact with all members of the congregation. Casual visiting by those with positions of responsibility in the church but not to any specific group Transport - private/casual either organised independently or for any member of the			ade
Pastoral Response Team members Synod recognised posts Check each role individually Ministers, stipendiary/non-stipendiary and Church Related Community Workers No URC Assembly Accredited Lay Preachers No Trustees No URC Non Assembly Accredited Lay Preachers, URC Worship Leaders No Other denominations' Lay Preachers/Worship Leaders Elders / Pastoral visitors who make home visits but not to any specific groups, rather the whole congregation - general service for all members of the Church and is not targeted at people with particular needs e.g. an elder will visit all members of the congregation in his/her area and not just, for example, older people who are housebound. Elders will also visit people with particular needs in their patch but this is incidental to their main role of providing contact with all members of the congregation. Casual visiting by those with positions of responsibility in the church but not to any specific group Transport - private/casual either organised independently or for any member of the	Ministers and CRCWs in training		e m I Re
Pastoral Response Team members Synod recognised posts Check each role individually Ministers, stipendiary/non-stipendiary and Church Related Community Workers No URC Assembly Accredited Lay Preachers No Trustees No URC Non Assembly Accredited Lay Preachers, URC Worship Leaders No Other denominations' Lay Preachers/Worship Leaders Elders / Pastoral visitors who make home visits but not to any specific groups, rather the whole congregation - general service for all members of the Church and is not targeted at people with particular needs e.g. an elder will visit all members of the congregation in his/her area and not just, for example, older people who are housebound. Elders will also visit people with particular needs in their patch but this is incidental to their main role of providing contact with all members of the congregation. Casual visiting by those with positions of responsibility in the church but not to any specific group Transport - private/casual either organised independently or for any member of the	ivinisters and Ortows in training		itec
Pastoral Response Team members Synod recognised posts Check each role individually Ministers, stipendiary/non-stipendiary and Church Related Community Workers No URC Assembly Accredited Lay Preachers No Trustees No URC Non Assembly Accredited Lay Preachers, URC Worship Leaders No Other denominations' Lay Preachers/Worship Leaders Elders / Pastoral visitors who make home visits but not to any specific groups, rather the whole congregation - general service for all members of the Church and is not targeted at people with particular needs e.g. an elder will visit all members of the congregation in his/her area and not just, for example, older people who are housebound. Elders will also visit people with particular needs in their patch but this is incidental to their main role of providing contact with all members of the congregation. Casual visiting by those with positions of responsibility in the church but not to any specific group Transport - private/casual either organised independently or for any member of the	Senior Assembly Appointed Staff & Relevant Church House Support Staff		Sch Uni
Pastoral Response Team members Synod recognised posts Check each role individually Ministers, stipendiary/non-stipendiary and Church Related Community Workers No URC Assembly Accredited Lay Preachers No Trustees No URC Non Assembly Accredited Lay Preachers, URC Worship Leaders No Other denominations' Lay Preachers/Worship Leaders Elders / Pastoral visitors who make home visits but not to any specific groups, rather the whole congregation - general service for all members of the Church and is not targeted at people with particular needs e.g. an elder will visit all members of the congregation in his/her area and not just, for example, older people who are housebound. Elders will also visit people with particular needs in their patch but this is incidental to their main role of providing contact with all members of the congregation. Casual visiting by those with positions of responsibility in the church but not to any specific group Transport - private/casual either organised independently or for any member of the	Comor / Goodmany / ppointed claim a Troisvant charen / Todos Capport claim		/G the
Pastoral Response Team members Synod recognised posts Check each role individually Ministers, stipendiary/non-stipendiary and Church Related Community Workers No URC Assembly Accredited Lay Preachers No Trustees No URC Non Assembly Accredited Lay Preachers, URC Worship Leaders No Other denominations' Lay Preachers/Worship Leaders Elders / Pastoral visitors who make home visits but not to any specific groups, rather the whole congregation - general service for all members of the Church and is not targeted at people with particular needs e.g. an elder will visit all members of the congregation in his/her area and not just, for example, older people who are housebound. Elders will also visit people with particular needs in their patch but this is incidental to their main role of providing contact with all members of the congregation. Casual visiting by those with positions of responsibility in the church but not to any specific group Transport - private/casual either organised independently or for any member of the			to the P\
Pastoral Response Team members Synod recognised posts Check each role individually Ministers, stipendiary/non-stipendiary and Church Related Community Workers No URC Assembly Accredited Lay Preachers No Trustees No URC Non Assembly Accredited Lay Preachers, URC Worship Leaders No Other denominations' Lay Preachers/Worship Leaders Elders / Pastoral visitors who make home visits but not to any specific groups, rather the whole congregation - general service for all members of the Church and is not targeted at people with particular needs e.g. an elder will visit all members of the congregation in his/her area and not just, for example, older people who are housebound. Elders will also visit people with particular needs in their patch but this is incidental to their main role of providing contact with all members of the congregation. Casual visiting by those with positions of responsibility in the church but not to any specific group Transport - private/casual either organised independently or for any member of the	TLS students studying 'Gateways into Care' courses		catior
Pastoral Response Team members Synod recognised posts Check each role individually Ministers, stipendiary/non-stipendiary and Church Related Community Workers No URC Assembly Accredited Lay Preachers No Trustees No URC Non Assembly Accredited Lay Preachers, URC Worship Leaders No Other denominations' Lay Preachers/Worship Leaders Elders / Pastoral visitors who make home visits but not to any specific groups, rather the whole congregation - general service for all members of the Church and is not targeted at people with particular needs e.g. an elder will visit all members of the congregation in his/her area and not just, for example, older people who are housebound. Elders will also visit people with particular needs in their patch but this is incidental to their main role of providing contact with all members of the congregation. Casual visiting by those with positions of responsibility in the church but not to any specific group Transport - private/casual either organised independently or for any member of the	Safe Church Advisers	Yes	ild ini
Synod recognised posts role individually			∢ -
Synod recognised posts role individually		Check each	Application
Ministers, stipendiary/non-stipendiary and Church Related Community Workers URC Assembly Accredited Lay Preachers No Trustees No URC Non Assembly Accredited Lay Preachers, URC Worship Leaders No Other denominations' Lay Preachers/Worship Leaders Elders / Pastoral visitors who make home visits but not to any specific groups, rather the whole congregation - Because this is a general service for all members of the Church and is not targeted at people with particular needs e.g. an elder will visit all members of the congregation in his/her area and not just, for example, older people who are housebound. Elders will also visit people with particular needs in their patch but this is incidental to their main role of providing contact with all members of the congregation. Casual visiting by those with positions of responsibility in the church but not to any specific group Community drop-in project organisers or workers where the drop-in is social/recreational and not targeted at specific groups Transport - private/casual either organised independently or for any member of the	Synod recognised posts		through
Church Related Community Workers URC Assembly Accredited Lay Preachers No Trustees No URC Non Assembly Accredited Lay Preachers, URC Worship Leaders No Other denominations' Lay Preachers/Worship Leaders Elders / Pastoral visitors who make home visits but not to any specific groups, rather the whole congregation - Because this is a general service for all members of the Church and is not targeted at people with particular needs e.g. an elder will visit all members of the congregation in his/her area and not just, for example, older people who are housebound. Elders will also visit people with particular needs in their patch but this is incidental to their main role of providing contact with all members of the congregation. Casual visiting by those with positions of responsibility in the church but not to any specific group Community drop-in project organisers or workers where the drop-in is social/recreational and not targeted at specific groups Transport - private/casual either organised independently or for any member of the		individually	CAS
Trustees Treasurer No URC Non Assembly Accredited Lay Preachers, URC Worship Leaders No Other denominations' Lay Preachers/Worship Leaders Elders / Pastoral visitors who make home visits but not to any specific groups, rather the whole congregation - Because this is a general service for all members of the Church and is not targeted at people with particular needs e.g. an elder will visit all members of the congregation in his/her area and not just, for example, older people who are housebound. Elders will also visit people with particular needs in their patch but this is incidental to their main role of providing contact with all members of the congregation. Casual visiting by those with positions of responsibility in the church but not to any specific group Community drop-in project organisers or workers where the drop-in is social/recreational and not targeted at specific groups Transport - private/casual either organised independently or for any member of the		No
Treasurer URC Non Assembly Accredited Lay Preachers, URC Worship Leaders No Other denominations' Lay Preachers/Worship Leaders Elders / Pastoral visitors who make home visits but not to any specific groups, rather the whole congregation - Because this is a general service for all members of the Church and is not targeted at people with particular needs e.g. an elder will visit all members of the congregation in his/her area and not just, for example, older people who are housebound. Elders will also visit people with particular needs in their patch but this is incidental to their main role of providing contact with all members of the congregation. Casual visiting by those with positions of responsibility in the church but not to any specific group Community drop-in project organisers or workers where the drop-in is social/recreational and not targeted at specific groups Transport - private/casual either organised independently or for any member of the	URC Assembly Accredited Lay Preachers	No
URC Non Assembly Accredited Lay Preachers, URC Worship Leaders Other denominations' Lay Preachers/Worship Leaders Ro Elders / Pastoral visitors who make home visits but not to any specific groups, rather the whole congregation - Because this is a general service for all members of the Church and is not targeted at people with particular needs e.g. an elder will visit all members of the congregation in his/her area and not just, for example, older people who are housebound. Elders will also visit people with particular needs in their patch but this is incidental to their main role of providing contact with all members of the congregation. Casual visiting by those with positions of responsibility in the church but not to any specific group Community drop-in project organisers or workers where the drop-in is social/recreational and not targeted at specific groups Transport - private/casual either organised independently or for any member of the	Trustees	No
Other denominations' Lay Preachers/Worship Leaders Elders / Pastoral visitors who make home visits but not to any specific groups, rather the whole congregation - Because this is a general service for all members of the Church and is not targeted at people with particular needs e.g. an elder will visit all members of the congregation in his/her area and not just, for example, older people who are housebound. Elders will also visit people with particular needs in their patch but this is incidental to their main role of providing contact with all members of the congregation. Casual visiting by those with positions of responsibility in the church but not to any specific group Community drop-in project organisers or workers where the drop-in is social/recreational and not targeted at specific groups Transport - private/casual either organised independently or for any member of the	Treasurer	No
Elders / Pastoral visitors who make home visits but not to any specific groups, rather the whole congregation - Because this is a general service for all members of the Church and is not targeted at people with particular needs e.g. an elder will visit all members of the congregation in his/her area and not just, for example, older people who are housebound. Elders will also visit people with particular needs in their patch but this is incidental to their main role of providing contact with all members of the congregation. Casual visiting by those with positions of responsibility in the church but not to any specific group Community drop-in project organisers or workers where the drop-in is social/recreational and not targeted at specific groups Transport - private/casual either organised independently or for any member of the	URC Non Assembly Accredited Lay Preachers, URC Worship Leaders	No congregation - general service for all members of the Church and is not targeted at people with particular needs e.g. an elder will visit all members of the congregation in his/her area and not just, for example, older people who are housebound. Elders will also visit people with particular needs in their patch but this is incidental to their main role of providing contact with all members of the congregation. Casual visiting by those with positions of responsibility in the church but not to any specific group Community drop-in project organisers or workers where the drop-in is social/recreational and not targeted at specific groups Transport - private/casual either organised independently or for any member of the needs e.g. an elder will visit all members of the congregation in his/her area and not just, for example, older people who are housebound. Elders will also visit people with particular needs in their patch but this is incidental to their main role of providing contact with all members of the congregation. Casual visiting by those with positions of responsibility in the church but not to any specific group Community drop-in project organisers or workers where the drop-in is social/recreational and not targeted at specific groups Transport - private/casual either organised independently or for any member of the	Elders / Pastoral visitors who make home visits but not to any specific groups, rather the whole congregation - Because this is a Casual visiting by those with positions of responsibility in the church but not to any specific group Community drop-in project organisers or workers where the drop-in is social/recreational and not targeted at specific groups Transport - private/casual either organised independently or for any member of the	needs e.g. an elder will visit all members of the congregation in his/her area and not just, for example, older people who are housebound. Elders will also visit people with particular needs in their patch but this is incidental to their main role of providing contact with all members of the congregation.
not targeted at specific groups Transport - private/casual either organised independently or for any member of the	group
Transport - private/casual either organised independently or for any member of the	1 , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,

Welcomers, door stewards No		No

March 2011 1 of 3

Protection of Vulnerable Groups (PVG Scheme)

TABLE C

Guidance for Scotland only

		"Recruiting	Safely"
		requires PVG Scheme
		membership on new
Date to a data a Oldina	posts / ch
Role description - Children		and/or every	y 5 years
Elder / Pastoral Visiter - serving, with a designated responsibility for ch	nildren	Yes	e Jcy
Children & Young People's Workers		Yes	eme
Junior Church / Sunday School teachers		Yes	Scheme ies Agen :AS)
Children & Young People's Group Leaders and Helpers		Yes	Application to the PVG Scheme made through the Churches Agency for Safeguarding (CAS)
Workers with under 5s - including creche, carers and toddler leaders		Yes	e P Chu rding
Leaders of holiday clubs or weekends away		Yes	o th the guai
Officers of youth organisations - including the Brigades (see Note C)		Yes	on t igh afe
Managers, supervisors and trainers of those who work with children		Yes	cation Trou
Transport organised on behalf of the Church/group/project solely for cl	hildren	Yes	Application to the ade through the Cl for Safeguard
Leaders and teachers in music groups, drama groups etc, solely for ch	nildren	Yes	A ma
Host Parents		Yes
Reception staff, administrators, cleaners, caretakers, cooks on church any part of day care premises at times when children are being looked	•	Yes
Parents and Carers helping in above activities	Not unless regulary responsible for other children and likely to be unsupervised at times
Adults bringing youth & children's choir/groups from abroad and then mingle with our own children and young people -	Seek guidance from Youth & Children's office
One-off emergency help within a children's or young people's group, u the exercise of reasonable caution	nder supervision and with	No
Choirs, bell ringers, music, drama, membership class members who are children		No
Young adults who are members of a mixed age youth group		No

Note C

Scout and Guide leaders have similar requirements, but are not officers of the Church. BB/GB officers and helpers should PVG register - where they are new to the church/role, unless they are seeking officer accreditation via BB/GB, when this will be done by BB/GB head office.

GENERAL NOTES:

- * If in doubt check (Tel: 020 7916 8683/8634 or Email: safeguarding@urc.org.uk)
- * For individuals coming from abroad please see URC Overseas leaflet
- * For Church / International link projects enforce the same rules to the overseas activity as those applied within the URC

March 2011 2 of 3

Protection of Vulnerable Groups (PVG Scheme)

TABLE C

Guidance for Scotland only

Role description - Vulnerable Adult		"Recruiting Safely" requires PVG Scheme membership on new posts / change of post and/or every 5 years
Elder / Pastoral visiter - serving, with a designated responsibility for Vulnese are visits providing what the Protection of Vulnerable Groups (Swelfare service' (meeting emotional, social and spiritual needs), target particular needs i.e. housebound, older people and people affected by able to attend Church premises. The support is regularly delivered on basic training is likely to be provided for the pastoral carers. There may duties involved and ideally post holders will have been interviewed and	Scotland) Act 2007 calls a ded at people with disability who are not behalf of the Church and y be a description of the	Yes	Application to the PVG Scheme made through the Churches Agency for Safeguarding (CAS)
Group Leaders and Helpers of a targeted 'welfare service' (see above). For example a lunch club has been set up to meet the needs of members of the congregation with a particular need i.e. affected by dementia. The group is targeted at this particular group of people.		Yes	ches Agen
Managers, supervisors and trainers of those who work with Vulnerable	Adults	Yes	Churc
Transport organised on behalf of the Church/group/project solely for Vulnerable Adults. This service is targeted at people with particular needs. In this example particular needs could mean mobility problems as a result of disability or ageing who are unable to use public transport or drive.		Yes	hrough the C (CAS)
Church group providing meals and clothing for homeless people on church premises. Homeless people are people with what the Protection of Vulnerable Groups (Scotland) Act 2007 calls particular needs i.e. needs over and above those of the general population. The service is likely to be organised, formal, and regular. And maybe it would be part of the person's normal duties to supervise the homeless people using the service too.		Yes	cheme made tl
Leaders and teachers in music groups, drama groups etc, solely for V	ulnerable Adults	Yes	S D
Parents and Carers helping in above activities	Parents and Carers helping in above activities Other vulnerable adults a unsupervised at		o the PV
Other activities: drop in cafes, support groups for people affected by addictions, telephone counselling service staffed by Church volunteers, grass cutting/gardening group etc To determine whether PVG Scheme membership is required it would be necessary, to look at who the service is being provided for, what the person will do, and how it is organised. Use the check lists in the Tables A and B.		Check each role individually	Application t
Lunch club or social club for people over 65 years of age. This is a general solution of the club of t	affected by dementia or	No
One-off emergency help within a vulnerable adult group, under supervision		No
Hospital Visiting Scheme (Church members visiting members of the control hospital) If the Hospital Visiting Scheme is a general one for any members in hospital then PVG Scheme membership is not required.		No
Bereavement Visiting Group (for any recently bereaved members of is likely to be a service that is open to all members of the congregation small part of it such as people affected by disability or frailty.		No
Choirs, bell ringers, music, drama, membership class members who are Vulnerable Adults		No
Young adults who are members of a mixed age youth group who are \	/ulnerable Adults	No

March 2011 3 of 3