

Paper D1

Education and Learning Committee
Appointment of Tutor in
New Testament Language,
Literature and Theology at Westminster College

United Church 2015
Church 2015
Reformed Church 2015
Church 2015

Paper D1

Education and Learning

Appointment in New Testament Language, Literature and Theology, Westminster College

Basic Information

Contact name and email address	Revd Dr John P Bradbury jpb44@cam.ac.uk
Action required	None.
Draft resolution(s)

Summary of Content

Subject and aim(s)	To inform Mission Council of an appointment made on behalf of the General Assembly.
Main points	To inform Mission Council of the appointment of the Revd Dr Yak-Hwee Tan to the post of tutor in New Testament Language, Literature and Theology at Westminster College.
Previous relevant documents
Consultation has taken place with...

Summary of Impact

Financial
External (e.g. ecumenical)

Appointment to the post of Tutor in New Testament Language, Literature and Theology at Westminster College

1. The appointment group, Chaired by the Revd Nigel Uden, convener of governors at Westminster College, is delighted to inform Mission Council of the appointment of the Revd Dr Yak-Hwee Tan to the post of tutor in New Testament Language, Literature and Theology at Westminster College, Cambridge. Dr Tan comes to us from the post of programme secretary for reflection and research at the Council for World Mission (CWM), based in Singapore. Prior to her work with CWM, Dr Tan held posts as lecturer and assistant professor at the Taiwan Theological College and Trinity Theological College, Singapore. Her doctoral studies were completed at Vanderbilt University in the USA. She is an ordained minister of the Presbyterian Church in Singapore. Governors, staff and students at Westminster College look forward to welcoming Dr Tan to her role working in one of the Resource Centres for Learning of the United Reformed Church. She brings a wealth of experience and knowledge in the field of New Testament Studies with a particular specialisms in the Gospel of John and post-colonial Biblical hermeneutics. She also has wide experience of, and passion for, all forms of education within the life of the Church.

