6. Secretary for Church and Society

Mission Council is asked to note that Dr Andrew Bradstock resigned from this post in the summer, with effect from mid-October. We are very grateful for Andrew's learned and wide-ranging insight into a host of important social, economic, international and political issues, and into ways that Christians may witness to gospel values in these matters. Since this post had been reviewed in 2014, an advertisement and interview process was put promptly in hand, and an appointment has been made, subject to suitable references. The new appointee will start in January.
