

15. Cry, 'I can't breathe!'

The words of George Floyd (and others who died pinned down by police) have become a rallying cry for much wider issues of injustice. This song seeks to invite Christians to share the cry and join the struggle.

John Campbell

'WOODLANDS'
William Greatorex

1. Cry, 'I can't breathe!' with those pinned down to
 2. Cry, 'I can't breathe!' re - mem - b'ring times lone
 3. Cry, 'End this now!' with those who've had e - 4. Cry, 'In Christ's Name!' till all Christ's church can 5. Cry, 'I can't breathe!' with all who seek to die, when law en - for - cers kill, all help de - gone when slave ship holds would stif - le and con - nough who march to end in - jus - tice harsh and see that Je - su's work's not done till all are build a world where no - one is un - just - ly

E A7

ny. Cry, 'I can't breathe!' while demn. Cry, 'I can't breathe!' with rough. Cry, 'End this now!' with free. Cry, 'In Christ's Name!' as killed. Cry, 'I can't breathe!' till

Dm Dm7/C G7 C F/A

ra - cist struc - tures mean so ma - ny those from la - ter days still trapped by all who would pro - claim that black lives we com - mit to share in striv - ing hope be - gins a - gain, and all are

C/E F G7/D C Dm7/F G C

bligh - ted lives, be - yond ob - scene. af - ter - shocks of slav - ry's ways.
 mat - ter; let us end the shame!
 for a world that's just and fair.
 blessed, and peace and just - ice reign.