Celebrating our intercultural life together

Gifted! A time of Plenty

The United Reformed Church has professed to being a Multicultural Church. A key implication of this declaration is that we desire to be a church committed to empowering all towards, just, inclusive, renewing and transforming mission and ministry.

The United Reformed Church Multicultural Celebration 2013 is about gathering together to celebrate and be inspired by each other's stories and cultures. We all have stories and we are all cultural beings, hence every congregation of the United Reformed Church is multi-cultural. Here is an invitation to discover and celebrate our diverse spirituality and ethos, to share each other's experiences, to deepen cross-cultural understanding, to network and to develop intercultural habits in our life together. The programme will include a variety of cultural presentations, workshops, meal, activities for all age groups, and worship.

This is an opportunity for ALL United Reformed Church congregations to come to the feast to share ideas and celebrate the gifts of our rich cultural diversity in the church and society. For this reason we invite you to prepare an item/performance that expresses your culture and faith (preferably 5 minutes, but maximum 10 minutes) that ALL can enjoy. It can be drama, dance, music, song, poetry or.....any way you see fit.

Please contact the Racial Justice and Multicultural Ministry Office for further information and/or to let us know you are coming.
