

God you call us through the wood, through the wood you speak to us.
May we, your wood-wise ones, touch wood with you,
hang onto your promises and help shape the dreams of community