

GOD'S APPRENTICE

A series of 9 sessions designed to help new Christians understand what it means to live and grow as a Christian. It is an ideal follow on from Viewfinder, or a series such as Alpha.

The material is split into three main sections:

*Relationship with Christ covers three topics:
Worship, Prayer and Bible.*

Relationship with the Church looks at Accountability, Care and Service.

*Relationship with your Community covers
Integrity, Evangelism and Mission.*

The DVD has been filmed in a variety of locations and incorporates a large number of cutaways, Vox pops, and additional film footage.

Each study is broken down into short sections allowing plenty of opportunity for group members to share ideas, raise questions or react to what they have seen and heard.

Andy Twilley is a Baptist minister, currently working as a Director with the Nationwide Christian Trust. He has a passion for the local church and a key part of his role is helping churches become the dynamic and vibrant communities God intends. He is eager to see faith presented in ways which are understandable, accessible and relevant, and in 2008 produced "Viewfinder" a DVD resource to help people explore the truths of the Christian Message. He is married to Louise and has three sons.
